FullStack Developer

I started my journey with programming 2 years ago. Currently I'm focused on developing Frontend applications. In September 2022 I decided to start education to be a Technician Programmer. From the very beginning I was interested in the great world of coding. One of the biggest advantages of programming for me are personal development, discovering solutions and unlimited possibilities. I think it's the time to develop my skills even further and start working on a commercial projects. That's why I'm looking for a new opportunities to next steps in my career. My dream is to achieve good skills to be a Fullstack Dev.
